What the Little Girl Wants in Style

By Marion Hale.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Youth demands its toll on Fashion's highway. Little girls are—if they are truly feminine—quite as interested in their clothes as their grown-up sisters.

The bride who entered with her father in a train suit and of midnight blue, tricotting, with hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses, Miss Jean Fraser who was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, wore a frock of turquoise blue crepe and carried Columbia roses. J. C. Bowers, brother of the groom, was best man.

After a Northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Bowers will be at home at the Hotel Richmond. Guests from a distance attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Simmonds, New York; Mrs. Fergus Bowman and son, Roanoke; Miss Roberts, Fort, and Dr. O. McIntosh, Fort, N. C.

Quiet Wedding.

A quiet wedding took place at 4 o'clock October 11 in the home of the Rev. Fred R. Chenuit, when Miss Grace M. Howard became the bride of Robert Clyde McAllister, in the presence of the immediate families. The bride wore a suit of midnight blue tricotting with hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Jean Fraser who was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, wore a frock of turquoise blue crepe and carried Columbia roses. J. C. Bowers, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alfred Everett, of Sneads Ferry, N. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Daisy Lee, to Dr. Jefferson Judson Cosby on Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony, which was witnessed by members of the family and intimate friends, was performed by the Rev. R. H. Winfree, pastor of Jerusalem Baptist Church, Methodist, at the home of the bride's uncle, S. R. Sanders, 1819 Hanover Avenue. The parlors were decorated with palms and ferns. The bridal party entered to the strains of the bridal chorus, from Lohengrin, played by Miss Lettie Wade, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of navy velvet and carried Bride roses and ferns. She entered the parlors with her uncle, Samuel R. Sanders, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his best man, Nick Burton Everett. Miss Lydia Everett, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore white crepe de chine, carried navy roses and ferns tied with pink ribbon.

After a honeymoon spent in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Cosby will be at home at 1819 Hanover Avenue. The out-of-town guests present at the wedding were: Mrs. Anna A. Everett and daughter, Annie Holland, of Sneads Ferry, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Cosby; Mrs. L. E. Bass, Raymond; and Misses Violet and Beauchamp, all of Methodist.

Tight Pounds.

A quiet wedding, with only the immediate members of the family present, was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Mary

That awful sourness, belching of acid and gases, that pain in pit of stomach, heartburn, nervousness, nausea, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is sour—liver torpid—bowels constipated. It isn't your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation. Try Cascarets—they sweeten the stomach, remove the fermenting food and gases; take bilious from liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning.

"Identical!"
says Bamboschek

Bamboschek knows every little throb in Muzio's voice. He is the principal conductor of the Metropolitan Opera Company,—and she is the Metropolitan's prima donna soprano. Bamboschek recently heard Muzio compare her voice with its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. This was his signed verdict: "The quality of Miss Muzio's voice and the quality of its RE-CREATION by the New Edison are identical."
